Product use authorizations

Most HP Software products have product use authorizations that are governed by Additional License Authorizations (previously called Additional License Restrictions). HP delivers the Additional License Authorizations (ALA) document(s) electronically; the documents are available from Software Support Online at www.hp.com/go/hpsoftwaresupport through the Contracts & Licensing page. This document provides you with an overview of and links to the ALA document applicable to a product.

 To download an ALA document, you need to sign in to Software Support Online with your HP Passport account.

Hybrid & Cloud software products

The next table lists the currently active Additional License Authorizations documents by Hybrid & Cloud (previously called Applications & Operations as well as Business Technology Optimization) software product. By clicking on the Document ID, the document will be downloaded from Software Support Online.

Previous versions of Additional License Authorizations documents

The above listed Additional License Authorizations are the ones that apply to new purchases from the date the ALA document was published. The version that applies to the date of a previous purchase was delivered along with the license certificate or right-to-use certificate for the purchased license(s). Effective April 2009, ALA documents are published on Software Support Online. When a new ALA document is being published, the replaced ALA document can be found through the Self-solve advanced knowledge search. Enter ALA or ALR as a keyword to search on and select document type Manuals. Then click on Search to look for documents with Additional License Authorizations. You can either search these for all products or for a specific product, as long as you also select All Versions and All Operating Systems.
